

About the speakers:

Linda Burnham is an activist and writer. She is a member of the editorial board of the new socialist monthly, CrossRoads, a member of the national leadership of Frontline Political Organization (formerly Line of March) and an organizer of the Women of Color Resource Project.

Leon Wofsy, a biologist at the University of California, Berkeley, is an independent socialist activist and writer. He is editor of Before the Point of No Return, a symposium on the Cold War.

Manning Marable is professor of political science at the University of Colorado, Boulder. He is the author of numerous books and articles about African American, Caribbean and African history and politics, including Black American Politics. He is currently working on a political biography of Malcolm X.

Barbara Ehrenreich is an activist and writer, and one of the honorary co-chairs of the Democratic Socialists of America. Her latest book is The Worst Years of Our Lives: Irreverent Notes from an Age of Greed.

Kendra Alexander is an anti-apartheid and socialist activist. She is a member of the national committee of the Communist Party of the United States, and the chair of its Northern California district.

Additional copies of this pamphlet are available from the July 7th Organizing Committee for $3.00 plus 20% postage and handling for each copy.

