MONEY-POWER RIDES HIGH

War-boom inflation roaring down on people of America

IN THE 15 WEEKS since the Korean War, price mark-ups have eaten away $5,000,000,000 of the $30,000,000,000 Congress voted for arms this year. In the same period corporate profits before taxes have reached an annual rate of $40,000,000,000. This tops the $35,000,000,000 annual rate, highest for any quarter in history, set in 1950's second quarter (estimates of President's Council of Economic Advisers).

This month workers earning up to $5,000 a year had their withholding tax jacked up 20%. That was to provide most of the additional $4,500,000,000 for arms asked by the President in July. But price mark-ups have left the government just where it was; the people doubly out of pocket; the big bankers and businessmen who run the government raking in fantastic profits, subject to no excess profit tax. Actually, the new tax law takes a smaller percentage bite out of corporate profits than the old one.

AIN'T SEEN NOTHIN' YET: Administration leaders predict the people will be "jolted" by next year's tax increase. Inspired stories from the Pentagon predict that military expenditures will jump this fiscal year to $70,000,000,000. The Budget Bureau slashed nonmilitary spending $580,000,000. This affects construction of homes, hospitals and rural electrification programs, flood control, land reclamation. Standard & Poor's told investors that military spending "ends the fear, recurrent in recent years, of a business recession or depression 'somewhere around the corner.'" & & P predicted, however, that "this inflation will get worse." Claude A. Putnan, head of the National Assn. of Manufacturers (dominated by Morgan, Rockefeller, Mellon, DuPont), was reported to have told a closed meeting of the President's Advisory Committee on Mobilization:

Daily Express, London

dent's Advisory Committee on Mobilization: "This tension has to break some time. We can't stand it indefinitely. A preventive war would be one way to end this intolerable situation, our country, and espectally business, can't stand interminable mobilization." Otto Sayforth, U.S. Chamber of Commerce quiet more support

Otto Sayforth, U.S. Chamber of Commerce chief, was quoted as saying: "Personally I feel the same way."

LET IT ROLL: Although even the distorted Bureau of Labor Statistics index showed food prices up 1.4% in the last two weeks of September, White House sources said the President considers price controls premature.

Almost, it seemed, as a guilty joke, the President named to the post of Economic Stabilizer former America Firster Dr. Alan Valentine: Valentine, a director of Rockefeller's Freeport Sulphur Co. and of Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. (which with the German Zeiss Co. comprises the worldwide optical cartel), a former president of Syracuse University, is a long-time opponent of welfare spending as a "menace to the American way of life."

Named to head the Wage Stabilization Board was Cyrus Ching, veteran industrial relations expert for the Morgan-DuPont-Kuhn Loeb U.S. Rubber Co., and recently chief of the Federal Mediation Service.

Vol. 2, No. 47

NEW YORK, N. Y., OCTOBER 18, 1950

The UN is five years old

In San Francisco on Oct. 24, 1945, the United Nations was born and the birth was attended by the hopes of all mankind. Today the world peace organization is more and more an arm of America's money-power policy—as evidenced by the sanctioning of intervention in Korea after the fact. But all mankind still hopes that the UN will re-establish peace in the world—and one powerful force that can swing it back on the road to peace is the people of America. By their ballot on Nov. 7 they can tell their government to get off the road to war—and stay off!

And the western world suffers

PRICES AND PROFITS climbed and living standards slid downward throughout the western world as the U.S.-directed shift to rearmament got under way. This was the picture:

BRITAIN: Wool prices have climbed 70% since July. Children's raincoats were up $1.40, radio batteries 18c, for example. London train and bus fares, postage on foreign letters were increased. Price rises of 25-50% were expected shortly on all clothing.

The Trades Union Congress and the annual Labor Party Conference at Margate demanded curbs on prices and profits and insisted on wage increases. The government replied by attempting to enforce the wage freeze with police power. Ten leaders of a walkout of 1,475 London gas workers were sentenced to a month in jail. The government said it was studying the outlawing of strikes.

In Washington where he asked for more U.S. dollars, Economic Affairs Minister Gaitskell said the heaviest burden of armaments must be carried by the people themselves as consumers and might well involve lower living standards. But last week demands for wage increases came from leaders of 3,500,000 workers.

THEY DON'T LIKE IT: Strong opposition to the arms program seemed to be developing among Labor's rank and file. The N.Y. Times, noting "a growing cleavage" between the rank and file and the leaders, reported that "a great many members of the "Wonderful-more bad news!" Front, Brussels Labor Party are disturbed over the foreign policy of Ernest Bevin." The Tory London Observer said delegates to the Margate conference were more concerned with peace than security and gave their loudest applause to Defense Minister Shinwell's statement: "War does not solve problems—it only creates them."

N.Y. Post correspondent Arthur Schlesinger Jr. found "a large portion of the rank and file of the Labor Party is unhappy over UN action in Korea." Labor MP Emrys Hughes told the conference: "We have made hell on earth in Korea and we call it collective security." Labor MP G. Heeley said:

"American capitalism is hated in the colonial world because it has introduced the most diabolical methods of persecution that the peoples have ever known under imperialism."

France

The government said arms spending would be jumped from $1,200,000,000 to $2,450,-(Continued on Page 3)

Another time—another atrocity

THE present campaign to convince Americans that the North Koreans have committed frightful atrocities, while North Korean charges of atrocities by the other side are either suppressed or discounted on the ground that "Americans wouldn't do or countenance such things," brings to mind the story of a previous U.S. intervention against socialist forces in Asia.

In his book America's Siberian Adventure, the full report on our role in the military intervention against the Russian Revolution of 1917, Gen. W. S. Graves, who commanded U.S. forces in Siberia, thus quoted one of his respected officers:

"I came within an ace of pulling off my uniform, joining those poor people (the Bolsheviks), and helping them as best I could. The atrocities committed by the armies which were supplied and aided by the Allies were so fearful that many men in the American Army became sympathetic to the peasants. When this occurred, the more reactionary elements in the Allied Military Group accused the American Army of being overloaded with Russian Jews from New York, despite the well-known fact that this force consisted chiefly of Californians."

Wrote Gen. Graves: "The press was constantly being told that the Bolsheviks were the Russians who were committing these terrible excesses, and propaganda had been used to such an extent that no one ever believed that atrocities were being committed against the Bolsheviks." When the details of a Jewish pogrom committed by the anti-Soviets were reported to the U.S., the Commanding General was reprimanded for allowing the report to pass uncensored.

"America's Fighting Heritage"

by ELMER BENSON

National Chairman of the Progressive Party A SERIES OF INFORMATIVE ARTICLES POINTING THE ROLE OF AMERICANS IN THE FIGHT FOR PEACE AND PROSPERITY,

Important notice! UNLESS WE HEAR FROM YOU PRONTO, your GUARDIAN beginning with the first of November issue will come to you the way it used to before we undertook to wrap all mailed copies the way it used to before we undertook to wrap an mance copies last August. As we reported last week, the expense of wrapping the whole subscription run began to eat us out of house and home, and the work involved slowed down delivery. We will continue to send it to you wrapped, if we have your individual request. So-drop us a postcard or a note to this effect (preferably with the renewal of your subscription).

ON RENEWALS, WE RECEIVED QUITE A FLURRY after last

ON RENEWALS, WE RECEIVED QUITE A FLURRY after last week's Report to Readers. Many of them had notes advising us we have been saps for not charging our full subscription price of $2 a year all along, instead of the bargain $1 as we had been doing since mid-1949. The answer is still the same: we set the $1 price to sign up a large readership in a hurry. It certainly helped in doubling our subscription circulation in the year 1949-50, but now times are tougher and we must restore the $2 price. However, we will continue the bargain $5-a-year rate for you who have been taking weekly bundles of five copies for redistribu-tion. This is just about the best circulation booster we've found.

tion. This is just about the best circulation booster we've found. F YOU WANT TO CONTINUE getting your paper wrapped, why not join the $5-a-year bundle boosters? You can hand out the extra four to friends—or peddle them at a nickel a copy and get your bait back with dividends. Also, you can re-mail your extra copies in an open-end wrapper for a one-cent stamp, if you like. You can put your own return address on the wrapper so that people will know where the paper comes from. No notes inside, however; that's against postal regulations. Whatever you decide, please let us know in a hurry. We have to make the full changeover during the next two weeks to get off to a smooth new start in November.

IN ANY CASE, WHY NOT RENEW your subscription right nov

even though it may have a few months to run—AND GIVE US A REAL SEND-OFF AS WE START OUR THIRD YEAR OF PUBLI-

BEGINNING IN THE OCT. 25 ISSUE

Vol. 2, No. 47

REPORT TO READERS

-

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: U.S. and possessions, Canada, Latin Amer-ica, Philippine Liands, 62 a year. First class and air mail rates on request. Single copies 5c, Re-entered as second class matter March 17, 1956, at the Post Office at New Tork, N. T., under the Act of March 5, 1879. MANUS JAMES ARONSON JAMES ARONSON

OCTOBER 18, 1950

A case for Freud? Executive Edito

A CENE IOI A NEW YORK, N.Y. Truman's recent attack on the Marines recalls to mind the song that was popular in World War I: Ho! for the conyak! Ho for the

THE MAIL

Ho! for the conyak! Ho for the wine! Ho! for the Mam'sell's, everyone fine! Ho! for the hardtack, bully beef and beans.

and beans. Hell with the Kaiser and the G-- D--- Marines! To

G-- D-- Marines! Could be the rhost of Freud would say Harry got an Oedipus complex when he was Capt. Harry, and has never gotten over his infantile conditioning. Natalie Schretter conditioning. Natalie Schretter Getting wise in Iowa MOUX CITY, IOWA A lot of us here are working to eliminate our Congressman from this district. He does not repre-sent us. He refused to sign the Townsend petition but went to Con-gress under the Townsend banner. All he has done is to play politics. Here is hoping people in the U.S.A. will get wise to what is going on and upset the capitalistic apple our in Washington. Keep up your good work. A. Stiegers

Long may you wave NEW YORK, N.Y. Tim giving home permanents for the price of a subscription. More coming. E. K. Lubarsky

More Marcs wanted

More Marcs wanted A HABRA, CALIF. We must make the people of the two moscious of the fact that if they got such men as Marcantonio of the the federal, state and city offices we could do the political, the federal, state and city offices we could do the political, the federal, state and city offices we could do the political, the federal, state and city offices we could do the political, the phrase "government of the phrase "government of the phrase "government of the federal state and city offices we could do the political, the federal the phrase state of the the state of magasines 1 have and the phrase of magasines 1 have and the phrase of magasines 1 have and the state of magasines 1

The "wench" system

The "wench" system Ist a few decades after the Civil War heard a "bigity" old woman there is a few decades after the Civil War heard a "bigity" old woman there is a search of the search is a say to get a wench to do a large family washing for a pint of sorgum." I was a child then but I understood it and my sym-pathy was with the "wench." Now a minister of the Gospel of Christ with the "wench" class, whether bistor, yellow, brown or white all with the "wench" class, whether bistor, yellow, brown or white all with the "wench" class, whether bistor, yellow, brown or white all with the surget and straightest for do for the surget and straightest for do for

ATION. Though we haven't menti nes, next week is our Second Ann nd we couldn't ask for a more well ewal and the good wishes it will can	niversary Issue (19 come present than	48-1950), over this sin-curse	wn or white d earth. ling it defense raightest road
3.3 cents a THAT'S WHAT IT W THE GUARDIAN TO	VILL COST YOU	TO SEND	A Carlos
Please enter the following subs at ( ) s ( ) Renew my own	$1 for 30 weeks $2 full year n sub at $2 a year. apped Booster's Bundle a	five copies weekly at $5 a year.	CS .
PRINT NAMES	street	City & ZONE	state
			•••••••
4			·····.
<ol> <li>$ enclosed for subs, ren</li> <li>$ my contribution to th</li> <li>Write for special rates on lar</li> </ol>	ne Peace Paper.	NATIONAL GU 17 MURRAY S NEW YORK 7,	TREET

<text><text><text>

Saps and infants? REDONDO BEACH, CALIF. Dollars to doughnuts, if the American people knew the facts about the Korean war, no more young American boys would be dy-ing in it.

about the Korean war, no more young American boys would be dy-ing in it. As it is, almost everyone I hear taking about it, declares that Russia is responsible—as, indeed, for all the evil going on in the planet—or are we just saps and infants that have never grown up and can't see how we are being fooled with propa-ganda? Mrs. Carol H. Turvey

Daily Express, London "I can assure you, Madam, that none of this will be exported to Russia."

The new golden calf

The new gomen can ViCTORIA, B.C., CANADA Does not Korea belong to the Korean people? Also, did not "the powers that be" in the U.S. A. vow to do away with colonialism? Why then have they got their representatives and bases practically everywhere in the world? The hatred the U.S. is soving will boomerang to throttle the "golden calf" they so fondly worship.

Drafting capital

LEETONIA, OHIO LEETONIA, OHIO Tam surprised to learn that a reader of the GUARDIAN should not know that the drive against communism means a drive against labor, civil rights, religious and tabor, civil rights, religious and to war. Proposing that we "draft capital mod personnel" is only giving all-out support to the war. You can't totop the warmakers by adopting this manner. Don't think tae slo-pantasty to the big capitalist whose income tax a draft of capital. Mr. Baruch's plan is nothing in their cys but an extension of that draft. Jahn W. Marshall

Seldes and the 100%ers

NEW YORK, N.Y. Enclosed is a check for $6. It is not a tremendous amount, but what makes it important is that the ori-ginal five was sent to George Sedder in Fact. It was returned to me

An fact, it was zerturned to me because as by now most of your conger published. Beldes received his final blow from fiberals that could not see eye-to-troubles. I do not see his view either, but I do not see his view that we are 100% right at this moment, nor at any moment. We morely believe we are right, but that does not mean that we cannot be honestly mistake. The best ally the fascists every-where have is the willingness of the liberal minded to destroy his fellow liberal. All liberal and left-wing groups in this country have a his-

Our way of life

parassed by a Bill of Rights, eluctant to unwrap it, mark the man a Communist ho doesn't yearn to scrap it, who doesn't yearn to scrap h. If you don't "Ja" to everything We say—and call it true, We've got sur blood hounds on yo trail, We've got a name for you.

We have a flawless formula, A technique of attack That saves you all the bother Of the right to answer back,

If you won't comment Yes or No. Say folks should be exempt From publishing their politics, We get you on contempt.

Or H you say you Are-Not-One, Nor Have-You-Ever-Been, You're lying-See? And Perjury Is how we'll get you in.

But if you say, "I'm-One, So-What?" You're guilty and no walting, For who the hell cares then at all What laws we're abrogating?

sigh for.

I recommend Our Way of Life, That all the world should sigh I recommend Our Way of Life, The kind men like to die for tory of disagreement. It is the curse of all progressive groups that they will not work with anyone that deviates a hair's breath from party or group purity. The us not have bitterness, fruist-tration or pet ideas and bias divide us. The rats will go their way, some-how. Let us not believe the first lie ourselvee, later. Unless the pro-to ourselvee, later. Unless the pro-progressives can learn to stop dividing themselves by making attacks on other progressives, the time is at and when there will be no pro-gressive. Lercy Disco

-Kathryn Peck

The least of these

The least of these LOOMIS, CALIF. I say if they could they'd wrap the Prince of Peace in war material, and send him to the front. They come near doing just that when they dress up and send away young men who don't want to kill people. Christ said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me." (Whather it is to feed them, bomb them, or haughter.) I'm not a preacher, but does the Abomb make a total eclipse over the goden rule? D. E. Lonnem

In honor of Adolf

In honor of Adon BROOKLYN, N. Y. All progressives should sign the "Crusade for Freedom" petition with the name of the man whose mem-ory it honors: A. Schickelgruber. It would not be amiss to ask the attendant what national capital maintains racial segregation as an official policy, and if they get the crow. Benito McGuire

Fear is the enemy

Fear is the enemy STOCKTON, GALIF. Last time I wrote to you it was to question—this time, having just read your issue of Sept. 27, with the excellent policy statement of the Frogressive Party and the use-ful reminder of the constitutional rights of the American people, I can wholeheartedly endorse your stand. Marcantonio is magnificent. In rights of the American people, I can wholeheartedly endorse your stand. Marcantonio is magnificent. In his speech of Sept. 20 to Congress he puts the finger on Public Enemy No. 1 in U.S. today—Fear: fear on the Russians, fear of U.S. Com-munists, fear that oneself or one's organization will be labelled com-munists, fear that oneself or one's organization will be labelled com-munists or subversive, fear of losing what we have (or like to think that one day we shall have), and deepest fear of all among the salary and wage earners, fear of losing their job. I cannot remember ever before having lived in an atmosphere so permeated with fear. If we—you, the HPP and all those of good will and courage—can succeed in exorcising the demon fear America will become once more the land of the free and the home of the brave. Sybil Sticht

Madam, we feel safe CLEVELAND, OHIO Here is our $5 contribution to your newspaper. We shall continue to support the GUARDIAN and all it stands for—but should you change your policy I shall come to New York and punch you in the nose. Mrs. Helen Craelatas

All the way

All the way SWANSEA, MASS. We progressives dare not relax for one moment or neglect to keep open our one channel through which we can hear the truth. I will try to get the four friends to read the GUARDIAN. Keep up the struggle, we are with you all the way. Bertha Bazell

LEETONIA, OHIO

Ruinous war-boom inflation hits U.S. and western world

(Continued from Page 1)

(Continued from Fage 1) 000,000, asked for $3,000,000 arms aid. Butter was up 7 francs, bread one franc in a host of increases which were pushing the cost of living upward. Which three for the our proceen Franch

Higher taxes for the average Frenchman were being prepared. He already pays 30% more of his income in taxes than the average American though his income is only about a third though his income is only about a third as large. Average French wages are under $14 a week. Most U.S. Marshall Plan money, as U.S. businesssman Thomas W. Kendall reported last week, "is funneled into syndicates and cartels of all kinds." In the N.Y. Herald Tribune last week-end Servan Schreiber, French journalist with close government con-nections, reported:

journalist with close government con-nections, reported: The standard of life of the French worker has decreased by 20% in less than four months. . . In the last three weeks the Socialist and Christian unions have joined the Communists in several instances, mak-ing for that dreaded "unity of action," the paramount aim of the Stalinists.

Austria

The government, apparently at the instigation of Marshall Plan officials, negotiated a wage-price agreement which lifted prices on most consumer goods and presented workers with the prospect of a 30% cut in their living standards standards.

Workers frow all Vienna's industrial districts and 300 factories throughout districts and 300 factories throughout the country responded with a general strike. The government called it a "Communist putsch," said it was backed by Soviet occupation authorities and crushed it with thousands of police. The U.S. sent a formal note to Austria's Chanceller Field plading its support Chancellor Figl pledging its support and praising the government's "firm-ness and determination."

Australia

The government increased military spending by 50% and sales taxes on consumer goods as much as 25%. The London Observer reported from Sydney:

A change has come over public thinking in the last three months . . . the public is no longer remotely interested in the ma-chinations of Australia's Communist Party. The one thing worrying all Australians . . . is the rising cost of living.

Soviet Union

Amid these doleful reports, four ar-ticles from Moscow correspondent Har-rison Salisbury in the N.Y. Times pre-sented a curious contrast. Salisbury re-ported that Moscow and other Soviet cities are in the midst of a gigantic building affort; that the Buscing fall building effort; that the Russians talk peace and domestic affairs, particularly about the great new hydroelectric projects recently announced; that there is an abundance of commune

as U.S. "totally destroys" Korea

the world with its mass raid on the the world with its mass raid on the British town of Coventry, and briefly added a new word to the English lan-guage: "coventryize". The word was inadequate to cover U.S. Air Force activities in Korea. As the UN conven-tion against genocide (mass extermi-nation and persecution of peoples) went into effect this week, Gen. Douglas MacArthur in the name of the UN could point to the almost "total de-struction" promised in his Oct. 1 ulti-matum. matum.

matum. In nearly four months of war the U.S.A.F., by both North Korean and U.S. accounts, had destroyed all the in-dustries of North Korea, leveled most of its towns and cities. Almost a month ago the U.S. said there were no more "strategic targets" in North Korea. But not all communities had yet been smashed. Last week, a 37-ship task force led by the U.S.S. Missouri shelled four already-battered cities on Korea's east coast; one, Chongjin, only 40 miles from Russia and 35 from Manchuria. A UP reporter aboard the Missouri wrote:

UP reporter aboard the Missouri wrote Reporter aboard the Missourl wrote: R's easy-almost pathetically easy-to pulverize a city like Chongjin when you have the stuff we have. But it must be awful for the North Korean industrial cen-ter and for the 190,000 persons who live-or lived there... To the young gunners it's just a target, one they can't miss. TERRIPLE ITERRATION

"TERRIBLE LIBERATION": Russia "TERRIBLE LIBERATION": Russia protested to Washington that a U.S. plane bombed and strafed a city 60 miles inside the Siberian border. The U.S. refused to accept the note, main-taining it should be delivered to the UN. China warned again that it could not stand idly by while its neighbors were invaded. At Lake Success a mem-ber of an Asian delegation asted a reber of an Asian delegation asked a re-

"If Russia intervened in a civil war in Mexico, leveled Mexican cities by saturation bombing, violated U.S. frontiers by bomb-ing Houston, shelled eities 50 miles from the U.S., seized Cuba, maintained a bomber patroi along the U.S. coast as the U.S. does along the China coast, what would you do?" In Pyongyang, to which MacArthur's . In Pyongyang, to which MacArthur's forces were rapidly advancing, North Korean Premier Kim II Sung said his people face a "grave crisis" and called on "the People's Army and Partisans to fight till the day of victory." From Seoul the correspondent of the London Sunday Times cabled that the city is "three-fourths destroyed" and that "50,000 civilians died in the last five days of battle... Few people have suf-fered so terrible a liberation."

Mac & Harry chat WAR & PEACE N 1940-41 Hitler's Luftwaffe shocked

HAYMAKING ON WAKE: Gen. Mac-Arthur left Korea and Tokyo briefly at the week-end to hold a three-hour conference with President Truman and a strictly a political show, "a substitute for the cross-country stumping tour that Korea canceled." In the N.Y. Daily News columnist John O'Donnell snorted: Wake Island is and always has been one of the worst spots in the Pacific to stage a political show.... A one-hour heart-to-heart talk by former Capt. Truman of Bat-tery B of the Missouri National Guard with the outstanding military genius of this century isn't going to make much political hay for the Fair Dealers. Whatever political hay the Democrats hoped to make from the trip, Mac-Arthur—"preoccupied and impatient to snorted:

WHY THE AMERICANS WILL NOT BE LOVED IN KOREA A flame-thrower wipes out a hut to prevent snipers using it.

W. E. B. DuBois and Vito Marcantonio

THE 1950 NATIONAL CONVENTION of the Progressive Party in Chicago unanimously voted the campaign to re-elect Congressman Vite Marc-antonio as the top priority job of the whole party, nationwide.

WITH THREE WEEKS of campaigning and canvassing ahead, "Marc" Whith Three weeks of campagning and canvassing anead, marc has in hand more than 40,000 signed pledges of constituents who intend to vote for him. This figure represents better than 40% of all the eligible voters in the Congressional district—despite a three-party gangup against him with a single Republican-Democratic-Liberal candidate. The margin for Marcantonio's victory must be gained between now and Nov. 7—and with nationwide help it can be gained!

DIRECTLY linked in national importance to the Marcantonio campaign D<sup>IRECTLY</sup> linked in national importance to the Marcantonio campaign in New York City is the statewide campaign of Dr. William E. B. DuBois, world-famous scholar and peace leader, for U.S. Senator on the ALP-Progressive ticket. The American Labor Party, in its first full indepen-dent statewide ticket since the party was founded in 1936, has smashed the ancient walls of prejudice with the DuBois candidacy, giving the citi-zens of New York their first chance to elect a Negro to the U.S. Senate since Reconstruction days.

PROGRESSIVES EVERYWHERE in America should rally behind these campaigns in these closing hours. This is YOUR opportunity—whether you are a Californian or a New Yorker, no matter what your city or state—to get in your licks in the fight to send Marcantonio back to Congress and to roll up an immense peace vote in the most populous state in the union.

THE EDITORS AND STAFF OF NATIONAL GUARDIAN urge you to send the most substantial contribution you possibly can—immediately!—to the campaign committee for these candidates and their running mates. It may be only $1, it could be $100 or $1,000.

Whatever you can afford-send it TODAY to: TREASURER, COMMITTEE TO ELECT A.L.P. CANDIDATES 17 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK 7, N.Y.

return to Tokyo"—seemed unimpressed by his Commander-in-Chief's flight half around the world to make his acquaintance. The two men talked for an hour alone, for two hours with their aides, then the "historic" conference battery of Pentagon and State Dept. officials on desolate Wake Island. Business Week described the conference as was over.

ASK THE PRESS-AGENT: The President said he'd "never had a more satis-factory conference since I've been President." The N.Y. Times' Anthony Leviero said Truman left Wake of the coverage. MacArthur told reporters who asked for his impressions of Truman: "All the comments will have to come from the publicity man of the President." When MacArthur's pilot sought to commandeer a jeep to carry the gen-eral away from the conference meet-ing, the jeep driver replied testily: "Well, if it's an order..." Back in Tokyo the general said "the President's visit cannot fail to arouse great en-thusiasm throughout the Far East." IS IT WAR? The President's press thusiasm throughout the Far East." IS IT WAR? The President's press secretary, Charles Ross, said the coh-ferees discussed Korea chiefly and touched on the Japanese peace treaty. Formosa, he said, was not taken up. But at Lake Success and in the world's capitals the main question was: Would Truman under pressure from Mac-Arthur and his political allies in the U.S. take the U.S. into war, even though an undeclared war, against China? China?

... like an insurance salesman who has at last signed up an important prospect, while the latter appeared dubious over the extent of the coverage.

In a 90-minute interview with Life correspondent John Osborne, following the President's attempted suppression (Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page) of his Aug. 28 message to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, MacArthur said in sum that the U.S. must help Chiang Kai-shek reconquer the Chinese mainland. MacArthur's minimum program for the Far East—intervention in Formosa, for-tification and rearmament of Japan, military support to France in Indo-China—was accepted by the Admini-stration last spring. Hugh Deane, for-

China—was accepted by the Admini-stration last spring. Hugh Deane, for-mer Tokyo correspondent, pointed out in the N.Y. Compass that if the President again yields to the General, ...he can adopt at once MacArthur's grand design; or, as he has done before, and is more likely to do this time, he can yield a little here and there, each con-cession providing a new basis for the next concession, until in the end MacArthur's policy has again become the President's own. conces policy own.

HO SCORES: Meanwhile in Indo-China the people's army of Ho Chi Minh scored its greatest victory in four years when it drove the French from a when it drove the French from a string of strong points along the China border and annihilated the retreating army of 3,500. Saigon reports said France was considering putting the issue up to the UN but the U.S. didn't favor this course because of India's sup-port of Ho. An unconfirmed report in the N.Y. Compass said the U.S. would give the French naval and air aid.

In Korea, American soldiers greeted the news of Ho's victories with "good old fashioned American cusswords." They told U.S. newsmen: "Here we go again!"

"General MacArthur returns Seoul to you with his compliments."

U.S. cooks up UNITED NATIONS deal to get around the veto

AST week the U.S. was pushing in the UN Political Committee Secy. Acheson's four-point proposal for trans-ferring to the Assembly the Security Council's peace-preserving powers under the Charter. The proposal is that if the Big Five disagree on how to deal with a threat to the peace, the Assem-bly be convened within 24 hours on the vote of any seven Council mémbers, with power to take action. This is Washington's effort to get around the "veto"—the Charter rule that the Council Big Five must agree on any resolution of substance. Stripping the Council of its prerogathe UN Political Committee Secy.

Stripping the Council of its prerogatives had become essential to Washing-ton cold warriors because admission of the new China into UN (China being one of the permanent Big Five) is now seen as inevitable. Even without the "veto," the U.S. could not rely on a seven-vote majority for convening a a seven-vote majority for convening a special General Assembly session, since India, Egypt and Yugoslavia often vote with the Soviets. The first essential to make the Acheson plan work was, therefore, to replace Egypt (whose term expires in January) with a reliable pro-Western delegate on the Council. This was what lent with importance to the contest lent vital importance to the contest between Lebanon and Turkey for Egypt's seat—won by Turkey on whom the U.S. can rely. Lebanon, which could properly have been considered a representative of the Arab bloc, might have imitated Egypt's recent independ-ent attinde ent attiude.

A SURE THING: With the Netherlands replacing Norway and Brazil replacing Cuba, Washington's seven votes in the Council are now reasonably safe even with the new China represented there. If the principle of unanimity is aban-doned, the West will thus make up for the advantage it lost in the world by the advent of a new Chinese regime. The ball will be tossed to the Assem-bly, where the U.S. commands about doesn't like. Half of this majority consists of the Latin-American bloc—a group so solidly pro-Washington that it is as if the U.S. had 20 seats of its own in the world organization.

bly, w. 40 votes—the necessary two-thirds ma-jority to pass anything the opposition

Opposition to the Acheson proposal came from the Soviets, Poles, Czechs, and to a lesser degree from India and Pakistan. Russia's Vishinsky said that some of the points were acceptable, notably the creation of an investigating commission to report on events; but he stood flatly on the provisions of the Charter in rejecting the proposal that any seven Council members could call a special Assembly session. In Lon-don and Paris, too, there were worries about this major tampering with the Charter. The London Observer reported:

Charter. The London Observer reported: Both the British and French held back till the last minute before deciding to com-mit themseives to action which, it is gen-erally agreed, will radically transform the UN and completely departs from the mean-ing and intent of the Charter. . . . Many supporters, including United Kingdom delegates, privately admit considerable ap-prehension over what the General Assembly might do with additional power to recom-mend the use of armed force. Particularly, countries with colonial possessions are nervous that the resolution, intended against Soviet Russia, might boomerang against them in the end.

U. S. UEBER ALLES: But the U. S. was determined to get what it wanted. What it wanted was automatic Assem-bly approval to send its own troops to interfere with whatever international development it dislikes—that is, the advent of any new socialist regime or an anti-colonial revolt.

In the face of this U.S. drive, Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky's renewed bid last week for peaceful negotiation of Soviet-American differences was im-pressive. He said:

"Some say only force can impress the Soviet Union. They say that only when the Soviet Union is made to shake in its boots can understanding be reached. What a pro-found and deep mistake! It will be a long time before the Soviet Union can be made to shake in its boots before anyone.... Since the wartime policy of cooperation, some nations have gone on to a tough policy.... Why not get back to the old wartime policy....? Then things may change.... If you want to heal the wound, we should get together and see what can be done."

Anybody else?

"Mr. Rhee is very popular with the army.

army." This classical definition for a dicta-torship was the answer of Col. Alfred Katzin, South African personal repre-sentative of Secy.-Gen. Trygve Lie, when he reported back from a trip to Seoul last week and was asked whether Premier Syngman Rhee had popular support in South Korea. Katzin backed the position taken by the Interim Comsupport in South Korea. Katzin backed the position taken by the Interim Com-mittee of the new Korean Commission (Australia, Chile, Netherlands, Pakis-tan, Philippines, Turkey, Thailand), which decided that Rhee's authority should not be extended to North Korea.

IS YOUR TOWN A-BOMB-HAPPY?

Strategy of terror applied

By Lawrence Emery

By Lawrence Emery But the worst property damage was almost in-significant when compared to the agonizing human toll. People ten miles away were blinded by the flash of the explosions. The heat was so intense that it burned shadows into concrete—all that remained of unfortunates seared to wisps of ashes near the bomb sites. Other persons close to the explosions were burned to death. First rescue workers to reach the disaster scenes found hundreds blinded, dazed and burned lying in the rubble or leaning dumbly against shattered walls. Others were buried so deeply it will be days before their bodies can be removed. Medical men say more deaths are inevitable because of exposure to radiation. All available hospital beds in Chicago and its surrounding communities were jammed with victims Monday afternoon even before the third bomb exploded. By nightfall some were be-ing removed to hospitals as far away as Cleveland, ing removed to hospitals as far away as Cleveland, St. Louis and Denver. —From an imaginative account in the #### Chicago "Sun-Times' of a mock atom bomb attack on the city.

THE mock raid was held Sept. 18. Three imaginary bombs "exploded" over the city. The estimates were: "dead," 129,000; "injured," 129,000; 12½-square-mile area "totally destroyed or damaged beyond repair"; another 78.7 square miles "less seriously damaged." For three days some 700 observers, including four governors, 20 mayors, 30 federal experts, scores of police fire and defense chiefs and representa-of police, fire and defense chiefs, and representa-tives of Britain, Canada and Hawaii held a "critique" to examine the work of Chicago's civil defense or-ganization. They judged that it took two weeks to ganization. They judged that it took two weeks to treat all casualties and shelter the homeless. Sheriff Walsh told the "critique" participants of methods to "control panic." If all else fails, he said, "standby procedures have been mapped to divert the populace as one would a stampede of cattle."

IT'S TERRIFIC: On Sept. 18 the National Security

IT'S TERRIFIC: On Sept. 18 the National Security Resources Board issued a master-plan for civil de-fense against atom-bomb attacks calling for mil-lions of volunteers. It compiled a list of 140 "critical target areas" in the U.S. but did not publish it; governors were told of the targets in their states. Twenty states have adopted new civil defense laws; 14 are operating on World War II set-ups; 14 states have civil defense agencies set up by executive order. The federal government plans to issue 30 civil defense manuals. Nearly 200 cities have already had actual practice in defense against an atom-bomb raid. Many schools in the nation now conduct atom-bomb drills with the children, from kindergarten up, herded into basements to await the all-clear while they practice with a Geiger counter. await the all-clear while they practice with a Geiger counter. What is all this doing to the American nervous

What is all this doing to the American nervous system? When a short-circuit occurred recently in a New York City subway, 1,000 passengers stam-peded with cries of "A-Bomb!" and trampled each other; a score were injured. When, a week ago, a series of sewer explosions blew manhole covers into the air in Brooklyn, the eight-block-square area was thrown into a panic with cries of "War!" and "The Russians!" Millions are being infected with a fear that they are in imminent danger of physical annihilation. annihilation.

GOD, ETC.: Many a politician calculates that if such fear becomes sufficiently acute, it will be con-sidered morally justifiable to atom-bomb the enemy first. In fact, new trends in current comment on the A-bomb attempt to make the weapon a "hu-mane" instrument—against an enemy. A featured letter in the N.Y. Times asserts that "the A-bomb might be used as the most humane, moral and effective weapon in the world among nations." Dr. Arthur 1 develop the A-bomb, writes i magazine that God condone Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

The progres

Much of the official thin is concerned less with peop Dr. Eugene Rabinowitch, a istry and editor of the Bullet

Istry and callor of the Bullet tists, said in Chicago on Sep "Not the death of millions, Industry and transportation, y our survival... The main p save the greatest number of the heartbeat of the nation for

IT'S HOPELESS: Other au telling us that there is li against an A-bomb. Dr. Va director of weapons researd is "no defense" and that it design an atom-proof build the San Francisco County 1 that even the evacuation of area would be impossible. I "The people would just ha have radio-active cars and the taminated areas."

Discussion of plant dis agencies. A survey by the Estate Boards produced th "government force" could The government itself is co key agencies over a 30-mile

DOGTAGS & CHAMBERMA DOGTAGS & CHAMBERMA agencies go on with their w that total disaster is only h which rates itself the natic the noisiest U.S. city on A a campaign on to extermin teurs could inoculate them a The Chicago Tribune wants way deepened so that 500 evacuated by boat. A driv Chicagoan wear an identit

POLITICS ALP girds for its biggest fight; registration is high

MORE THAN 1,000,000 New Yorkers M waited until the last day to reg-ister, then came through handsomely, breaking the city's record for an off-year. The 2,808,998 total topped last year's figure by 33,674, fell only 505,250 short of the 1948 Presidential election registration registration.

Every politician wore a stiff upper lip. This was the story the figures told for the embattled ALP:

• Registration in Rep. Marcantonio's four districts showed a slight gain over 1949, with Marc's strongest areas hold-ing their own.

• An ALP stronghold on Manhattan's • An ALP stronghold on Manhattan's lower east side dropped Slightly. In Brooklyn, drops in ALP areas of Brownsville, Bedford-Stuyvesant and New Lots were more than offset by gains in Flatbush, Williamsburg and East New York. The Tremont section in the Bronx dropped somewhat. In Queens, Long Island City areas where ALP has strength matched last year's mark; Astoria showed a gain; Jamaica dropped. dropped.

• In all, the 356,000 progressives who voted for Marc for mayor last year

lied on a nationwide scale

progress of man,

the world to prevent or stop war Arthur H. Compton, who helped o, writes in the current American condoned the atom-bombing of asaki. Icial thinking about civil defense with people than with industry. witch, a professor of bio-chem-the Bulletin of the Atomic Scien-

the Bulletin of the Atomic Scien-go on Sept. 11: of millions, but the disorganization of portation, will be the main threat to he main problem will be, not how to umber of lives, but how to prevent e nation from stopping."

Other authorities are meanwhile Other authorities are meanwhile lere is little that can be done b. Dr. Vannevar Bush, wartime is research, has said that there d that it is almost impossible to oof building. Dr. John Upton of County Medical Society believes uation of wounded from a blast is used in the said: id just have to take it. We couldn't rs and the injured going into uncon-lant dispersal in the U.S. has

when though urged by government y by the National Assn. of Real duced the conclusion that only " could bring about removals, self is considering scattering its . 30-mile radius from the capital.

MBERMAIDS: But civil defense a their work and their insistence is only hours away. In Chicago, the nation's No. 1 target and is ity on A-bomb matters, there is exterminate rats because sabo-te them and enved on endemic te them and spread an epidemic. ne wants the Illinois River water-that 500,000 persons could be . A drive is on to make every n identification tag. A defense conference was held to form an industrial security organization to combat factory spies and sabotage; measures proposed included fingerprinting and loyalty checks for all factory workers, standard out union techniques loyalty checks for all factory workers, standard anti-union techniques. In New York City, where a civil defense or-ganization of 450,000 is planned and where it is warned a single A-bomb would produce 160,000 casualties, cops are calling on all building managers to advise them on "panic control." The City Council has before it a scheme to build $450,000,000 worth of dual A-bomb shelters and parking garages under parks, playgrounds and buildings. The Sherry-Netherland, high-hat hotel, offers its guests two basement floors, with Geiger counters attached, for shelters, and reassures them that chamber-maids, housemen and belimen have been ordered to remain at their posts until all guests are safely to remain at their posts until all guests are safely tucked away. Dr. Marcus Kogel, Commissioner of Hospitals, reported that 400 railroad boxcars would be needed to contain sufficient first aid material for one A-bomb explosion.

TO THE QUARRIES! During the week it was announced that the nation's 1,500,000 Girl Scouts would be "integrated" in the civil defense organization

In Kansas City the sheriff made a survey of sur-In Kansas City the sheriff made a survey of sur-rounding quarries, reported that six of them have enough underground space to hold $40,000 persons. His favorite A-bomb shelter is The Grotto, an abandoned quarry with 14 underground acres. In Jackson, Mich., the task of blood-typing the town's 51,000 residents and equipping them with dogtags was under way. On the West Coast, about 20 times a day teams of int fightars take of to identify plages approach.

of jet fighters take off to identify planes a proach-ing San Francisco from the Pacific. According to Brig. Gen. William M. Morgan, vice-commander of the Western Air Defense Force, the planes are fully armed and "ready to shoot." Daily cost: $20,000.

IT'S SIMPLE: In Washington some 400 mayors and defense officials met to criticize the federal government for being slow with more detailed civil defense plans, and for failure to date to provide cities with funds and equipment. . In Birmingham, Ala., a newspaper conducted a poll of its readers on the question of who should have priority in limited shelter space. They voted politicing last politicians last.

New York Times

politicians last. While civil defense heads describe the horrors of an A-bomb attack and predict astronomical casualties, there is one thing they refuse to tell the public: the simple defense against the A-bomb is to ban it. But this would be a blow to 84 concerns in the U.S. making 180 different kinds of instru-ments for detecting radio-active objects. These firms expect to do an $8,000,000 business this year.

S* h nio's

over holdtan's . In s of and t by t by and here who

year

on in In rear's naica

seemed to be still there, capable, if mo-bilized, to hold Row C for the ALP. To do so they will have to top the Liberal Party's vote. Marc summed up: "The registration figures are good news for the people but a bitter pill for the Tammany-Liberal Party bosses, the Experi-ence (in doubletalk) Party candidate, and the Dewey-Hanley-Corsi puppets of the Chase National Bank."

FLYING START UPSTATE: A 15-car delegation greeted the ALP statewide candidates Sunday morning at Buffalo, their first stop on a week-long upstate tour. There more than 300 gathered at an afternoon rally, 100 at an evening dinner. They heard the candidates rally the fight to "hold Row C for peace."

GUARDIAN's and ALP's John T. Mc-Manus (running for governor) reported that the press blackout held. Reporters showed up but their stories never reached print. In spite of this the can-didates found a combination of high enthusiasm and down-to-earth wardby-ward organization in Buffalo.

GOP HOPES: Though Democrats, Re-publicans and Liberals insisted they were cheerful, the Republicans found better reason in the figures than did either of the other two parties. Demo-cratic leaders, faced with a drain of votes by independent Impellitteri, had earlier indicated they would need a registration of 3,000,000 to breathe easy. The Republicans could also point to The Republicans could also point to gains in their own upper-class strong-holds: Times Square, Middle East Side; Park Avenue; Bayridge and Park Slope in Brooklyn; in many areas of Gueens, though the large recent influx into that borough left the trend there in doubt.

Upstate, where Republicans must lead overwhelmingly to balance the city's Democratic vote, registration fig-ures were inconclusive although show-ing an overall increase over the last state vote in 1946. Buffalo, which elected a Republican mayor last year, dropped—but so did Syracuse which last year elected a Democratic mayor. Strongly Democratic Albany gained slightly over last year's city vote.

SURRENDERING LIBERALS: Vito Marcantonio, campaigning for re-elec-tion to Congress against an unprece-dented three-party gang-up, picked the Liberal Party as his target of the week. In an open letter to voters he had this to say about Liberal Party Chairman Adolf & Berle Jr.

An an open letter to voters he had this to say about Liberal Party Chairman Adolf A. Berle, Jr.: He was kleked out of Franklin D. Roose-veit's cabinet because of his fascist ten-dencies and his opposition to FDR's peace plans. This same Berle today favors re-arming the Nazis of Germany. He was also attorney for the big mortgage complicacy of 30 large banks who denied the necessary loans for New York City's slum clearance. At the Liberal Party convention on Sept. 7, 1950, Mr. Berle said: "Liberals must sac-rifice the luxury of saving our soils and having a glorious time tilting at things that should be changed." Those are the words of all-out double-cross and sur-render.... Of Rep. Walter Lynch, running for governor on the Liberal Party ticket of Rep. Walter Lynch, running for governor on the Liberal Party ticket as well as the Democratic, Marc wrote: Lynch voted for the McCarran concentration camp bill, greeted the notorious anti-Semite Gen. Wladislaw Anders at the Waldot-AstoFia Hotel on Oct. 1, 1950 (GUARDIAN, Sept. 27, 1950). He voted to freeze wages but not to tax big business excess profits, Cong. Lynch voted in 1946 to break the railroad workers' strike by draft-ing the railroad workers' into the military service.

was at hand. Marc's headquarters need-ed only more door-bell ringers to use it.

Kenny files for mayor of L.A.

Mayor of L.A. "I WOULDN'T be surprised if I turn out to be the yeast in the pretty flabby m: we've had so far," com-mented Rebert W. Kenny, progressive Democrat and independent candidate for mayor of Los Angeles. "This town is ripe for real-popular government. New York finally got it under LaGuar-dia. Now it's our turn." The "flabby mix" is the mayoralty mess. Despite all the legal monkey-wrenches Mayor Fletcher Bowron could throw in the course of a year's litiga-tion, the question of his recall will be on the ballot in November. Mayor Bow-ron was elected as a reformer but his ron was elected as a reformer but his administration soon fell apart in the light of exposures that featured close links between prostitution rings and high police officials. As part of the recall resolution seven candidates have filed for the post. Five are run-of-the-mill politicians; the sixth a University of California profes-sor. City Engineer Lloyd Aldrich is the strongest candidate Kenny has to beat. Voters will pick their candidate at the same time they ballot on the recall. If the recall is approved the candidate with the most votes is thereupon elected elected.

BAITED AND BORED: Kenny, barren and boren served as muni-cipal and superior court judge, state senator and attorney general. Last June he ran unsuccessfully for the seat of arch-witch-hunter Jack B. Tenney in the State Senate. He was red-baited in that campaign as on many previous occasions, particularly when he held the post of chairman of the Progressive Citizens of America. He told the GUAR-

Citizens of America. He told the GUAR-DIAN last week: "I've been red-baited for ten years. The first time I got pretty excited about its now I find I have to stiffle a yawn." On expected endorsements ranging from far left to center, Kenny said: "To my mind there's no such thing as a political untouchable. That the Democratis have thought in recent years that there are, has been their big mistake."

TRIPLE DRIVE: Aside from the L.A. mayoralty California progressives had these objectives:

• A minimum of 135,000 votes for the three statewide candidates: George Walsh for Secy. of State; IPP Chair-man Reuben Borough for Treasurer; Mrs. Alia T. Washington for Comptrol-

Mrs. Alia T. Washington for Comptrol-ler. The minimum would assure the party's place on the ballot until 1952. Last week IPP officials told the GUAR-DIAN: "We'll not only reach that figure -we'll treble it." • Special concentration on the Con-gressional race in the 14th CD, where Mrs. Charlotta Bass, publisher of the progressive Negro weekly paper Cali-fornia Eagle, opposes Sam Yorty, one-time head of the state's Un-American Activities Committee. Another concen-Activities Committee. Another concen-tration is the upstate race of Rev. LeRoy Fauntleroy for state senator. •Campaign for peace. Rev.

ROOSEVELT & DOUGLAS: Spotlight-ed nationally is the effort of Democrat James Roosevelt to take the governor-ship from Republican Gov. Earl Warren. IPP leaders, though offering no oppos-ing candidate, took the position that Roosevelt's stand on the Korean war

"leaves him completely undifferentiated from Warren." They were equally cool to the can-didacy of Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas for the U.S. Senate. But candidate Douglas won praise from Kenny, who predicted she

Douglas won praise from Kenny, was predicted she "...will get every vote Roosevelt gets and many more besides. The Congresswoman is a fiesh-and-blood person with a record. She's gotten somewhere on her own power. She's opposed not by an incumbent but by a synthetic character." The "synthetic character" is Rep. Richard M. Nixon of the Mundt-Nixon Bill

Florida: FCC won't enforce its own law

"With the press almost wholly in the hands of warmongers, and the Federal Communications Commission lying down on its Job of protecting freedom of the air-waves, anti-war candidates in the U.S. in 1950 are in much the same predicament as anti-war candidates in Germany in 1940."

HAT was the way the Florida campaign looked to Stetson Kennedy, independent write-in candidate for Senator, running on a platform of "peace and equality." All seven Jack-sonville radio stations had refused him time, although federal regulations de-mand that all political candidates be given equal poperturity. Demogratic given equal opportunity. Democratic nominee George Smathers was broad-given equal opportunity. Low broad-nominee George Smathers was broad-casting freely. Kennedy first complained to the FCC on Aug. 2. The Commission replied by sending him a copy of the Federal Com-(Continued on following page) of his opponent James G. Donovan, backed by Liberal. Democratic and Re-

backed by Liberal, Democratic and Re-publican machines: In my own district the Liberal Party leaders again betray their own members and the American people by backing a man who publicly states he favors Franco, the butcher of Spain; who wants war with China to back up the corrupt Chinag Kai-shek; who says, "The Tatt-Hartley law is not an issue in this campaign."

THIS WAY TO WAR: Donovan him-

THIS WAY TO WAR: Donovan him-self boosted Marc's peace campaign last week when he told the Junior Group of the Women's National Republican Club: "We're headed into a serious clash with a different civilization; at the risk of be-ing called a warmonger—in the vernacular —I say that if it's a question of 'them' or 'us' I'm for war." The ammunition for a peace victory was at hand Marc's headquarters need-

ROBERT KENNY The yeast is rising

(Continued from preceding page)

munications Act. On Aug. 14 he filed formal complaints. No answer. On Sept. 3 he wired FCC for an immediate hearing. On Sept. 7 FCC asked for documen-tation of all charges. Kennedy rushed proof. Still no action, no hearing. He wired again on Sept. 20 and Oct. 3.

At last reports, with elections only three weeks away, Kennedy reported he was winning his fight to get on the air despite FCC silence. Meanwhile, he was nping the state in person.

AMERICANISM IN MINNESOTA: Signers of peace petitions in Minnesota were publicly abused; some were intimi-dated; but last week word came that more than 2,000 Minnesotans had signed to put a peace candidate on the

November ballot.

The candidate is Mrs. Susie Stageberg of Red Wing, running for lieuten-ant governor on the Progressive Party ticket. A veteran progressive, she was active in the Nonpartisan League, in 1922 ran for Secy. of State on the Farmer-Labor slate, and in 1948 joined in founding the Progressive Party.

Her planks are "peace and free speech." Concerning the status of both in Minnesota she wrote the GUAR-DIAN: "It is hard to believe that America could get this way." She ad-ded: "I am proud of our stalwart GUARDIAN and the firm stand it takes for true Americanism.

CALL TO COLORADO: Tillman H. Erb, Colorado's independent peace can-didate, was stumping Denver with this message:

Our country must practice democracy. Equality to work, to vote, to speak, to think, to pray for all clizens can only be won in a world at peace. Specifically Erb calls for mediation of the Korean war and a UN that will "serve the peoples of the world," admit China and end colonialism in Africa. In Denver the Erb-for-Congress Committee was taking reservations for an "Eat With Erb" dinner rally Friday Oct. 20 at the Unitarian Church, 19th and Broadway.

FREEDOMS 'Everyone keep out,' U.S. tells the whole wide world

CABLES buzzed from the State Dept. to U.S. embassies and consulates everywhere: cancel all entry permits for all foreigners until further notice. The first fruit of the McCarran Law was to fence off the U.S. from all the world.

The law bars anyone from entering who has ever been a member (even for one day in the distant past) of a "totalitarian" organization. Last week immigration officials began enforcing it to the letter of their understanding of "totalitarian"—a word originally used by the Nazis to describe a fascist state. Ellis Island became a bedlam of indig-Enis Island became a bediam of indig-nant opera stars arriving for the Met-ropolitan season; even Toscanini was questioned about his political youth. How long the total madness would con-tinue no one seemed to know. Since the law was patently designed to know since the law was patently designed to exclude left-wingers, and persons of fascist persuasion are the State Dept.'s allies all over the world, many wondered whether Washington had ordered the letter-enforcement in the hope of get-ting the law amended.

By the middle of the week nearly 300 persons, all with their papers in order, were held on Ellis Island in New York were held on sills Island in New York harbor for a thorough check of their entire lives. Hundreds more were on the high seas. Crews of many foreign ships were denied shore leave. Italy and the West German government protested to Washington. Others were expected to follow. The confusion in Washington and in all ports of entry was analling. and in all ports of entry was appalling. Then the "freeze" order went out.

"QUEER PRODUCTS": Most of the results of the total enforcement were preposterous. Fourteen Italian musi-cians on a goodwill tour under State Dept. auspices were detained and scrut-inized. Their passports had been an Dept. auspices were detained and scruc-inized. Their passports had been ap-proved in Rome ten days after passage of the McCarran Law. Victor De Sabata, conductor of Milan's La Scala or-chestra, had toured the U.S., in 1946 and 1949. In 1950 he was held on Ellis Island. Signorina Fedora Barbieri, 25, mezzo-soprano here for the opening of the Met next month, was held because she admitted attending a Fascist school in Italy as a child. (There were no other schools in Italy then). Dozens of other top Met singers are affected by the new law.

Many delegates to an Inter-American Press Conference in session in New York City were excluded, including its treasurer. Manilio Bettini, an official of the Italian Agricultural Ministry trav-eling under ECA auspices, was among Many delegates to an Inter-American eling under ECA auspices, was among those held. Twenty-three foreign delegates to a general assembly in New York City of the World Medical Assn. were prevented by the freeze from at-tending the opening sessions. But conductor Sir Thomas Beecham and his Royal Philharmonic Orchestra had no trouble getting in. Sir Thomas had no trouble getting in. Sir Thomas Knew the answers: "We're all Britishers, thank God! I had a queer product from the fiddle of Europe who got into the orchestra surreptitously about 35 years ago. He agitated a couple of days and was thrown out on his neck." A group of 14 Nazi-trained tech-nicians were detained, but quickly re-leased when it was found they had been hired by the U.S. Army. Members of Franco's avowedly fascist Falange in Spain were to be freely ad-mitted, it was understood in Washing-ton. It was "argued", the N.Y. Post said, that said, that

... inasmuch as McCarran, an ardent ad-vocate of aid to Spain, did not intend to bar Spaniards, Spaniards should not be

PROTEST: Rigid enforcement of the law's immigration sections speeded preparations for a national conference of the American Committee for Protec-tion of Foreign Born in New York City tion of Foreign Born in New York City Dec. 2-3. The conference call warned that under the law 3,000 foreign-born are faced with immediate deportation proceedings, 1,000 more with revoca-tion of their citizenship, and 10,000 with lifetime imprisonment because they are undeportable. Thousands more will be denied naturalization. Machinery for enforcement of other Machinery for enforcement of other provisions of the law had not yet been set up. President Truman by the end of the week had not yet named the members of a Control Board for the registration of "subversive" organiza-tions. tions.

CATHOLICS TAKE STAND: Resistance to the law was growing. Pres. Philip Murray of the CIO and Pres. William Green of the AFL both announced that their organizations would work for repeal. The American Jewish Congress joined during the week with scores of other influential organizations other influential organizations de-manding repeal of the measure. Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers, denounced the law; so did Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif.) who is also president of the California State Fedn. of Labor. Harry Bridges, presi-dent of the Intl. Longshoremen's and Warnhousemen's Union pledged a vis-Warehousemen's Union, pledged a vig-

Warehousemen's Union, pledged a vig-orous fight. The Catholic Worker, organ of the Catholic Worker Movement, called for cooperation with Communists in fight-ing the measure: We should give support to any Commu-nists we know of in our acquaintance in their determination to resist this haw. Remember, an unjust hav is no law. . . It may well be that in the near future any true lovers of freedom and liberty will have to make a silent protect in an Ameri-can Buchenwald, "To be silent in the face of injustice is to condone it."

Big decisions due from Supreme Court

N the traditionally quiet Supreme Court last week three Justices en-gaged in loud exchanges with U.S. Solicitor General Philip B. Perlman in the case of Dorothy Bailey, government employe fired under Pres. Truman's loyalty order. Earlier the loyalty proloyalty order. Earlier the loyalty pro-gram was challenged by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, the Natl. Council for American-Soviet Friendship and the Intl. Workers Order, which are seeking removal of their names from the Justice Dept.'s "subversive"

Civil rights cases on the high court's docket include N.C.A.-S.F. head Rich-ard Morford, Harry Bridges, the 11 Communist leaders and several "contempt" convictions for not answering political questions. The Alger Hiss appeal and that of Judith Coplon are also heading for the Supreme Court.

Army delays hanging of Negro officer

THE 24th Infantry Regiment of the 25th Division in Korea is an all-25th Division in Korea is an all-Negro, jimcrow outfit. Correspondents for the Negro press have reported that it has been given the toughest assign-ments, the least rest. On July 31, near Sangju, Lleut. Leon A. Gilbert Jr. of Co A, 30, from York, Pa., had been in combat for. 13 days; for six days and nights he had no for six days and nights he had no sleep. He was suffering from dysen-tery. He bore two wounds from World tery. He bore two wounds from World War II, wore a silver plate in his skull as the result of one. On the 13th day, still under attack, he had 12 men left. North Koreans had penetrated between an outpost line and the main defense line; Lt, Gilbert and his group were in the middle. A white officer (some re-ports say he was not familiar with Co. A's position) ordered Lt. Gilbert to ad-vance. It would have been a suicide mission. Another officer gave a con-flicting order. Lt. Gilbert broke up. He wrote his wife later: "I was shaken up wrote his wife later: "I was shaken up beyond being able to control myself."

APPEAL TO TRUMAN: Gilbert was placed under arrest. On Sept. 6 he was court-martialed directly behind the front lines by an all-white court. No member of his company was permitted to testify for him. The officer assigned to defend him made no arguments in his behalf. Lt. Gilbert himself did not take the stand. The verdict: "Misbe-baying himself before the enemy by his behalf. Lt. Gilbert himself did not take the stand. The verdict: "Misbe-having himself before the enemy by refusing to advance with his command." The sentence: death by hanging. It was upheld by Division Commander Maj. Gen. William B. Kean. The U.S. learned of Lt. Gilbert's plight when his wife, Mrs. Kay Gilbert, mother of two children and expecting mother of two children and expecting a third, appealed to President Truman to save her husband. Overnight, protests snowballed. Individuals and ganizations flooded Washington with letters and telegrams. Delegations went to the UN. The Army anneunced that the verdict would be delayed pending hearings. Mrs. Gilbert engaged two at-torneys to conduct an appeal."

October 18, 1950

THE GOAT: From Korea came à letter from Lt. Robert E. Ellert, Lt. Gilbert's defense counsel:

efense counsel: The behavior of your husband was beyond his physical and mental control, ... The military authorities wanted to make an example of someone and through chroum-stances your husband was selected.

Lt. Gilbert wrote: They waited for a colored officer to be the gout.

The case is now before the Army's Board of Review. Demands are grow-ing for a full investigation of the treatment and use of Negro troops in Korea.

Martinsville 7 setback

In Martinsville, Va., Judge Kennon C. Whittle set Nov. 17 and 20 as the days on which seven young Negroes are to die in the electric chair on a charge of rape. The sentencing came after a Rich-mond court rejected a plea for a writ of habeas corpus. The seven had ori-ginally been scheduled for execution in July, but nationwide protests won a de-lay. The men were arrested in January, 1949, and were convicted in trials last-1949, and were convicted in trials last-ing only six days. Gov. John Battle has refused to commute their sentences. The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People announced last week the sentences would be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

APPEAL FOR DANIELS BOYS: From Durham, N. C., came an urgent appeal for funds to save the lives of the Dan-iels cousins, young Negroes convicted two years ago of murdering a white cab driver in Greenville. Only evidence against the men were confessions pro-duced by the police after holding them incommunicado. The Daniels Defense Committee reports that $2,000 must be raised in the next two weeks to carry through a federal court hearing which will permit a full review of the case. Contributions may be sent to Nathaniel Bond, Treasurer, Daniels Defense Com-mittee, P. O. Box 1601, Durham, N. C.

FARM

Veep makes Brannan sell-out official

IVE months ago the President told the nation he would make the Brannan Farm Plan a major campaign issue in the 1950 elections. Last week the campaign was on and Vice-Pres. Alben W. Barkley was barnstorming the coun-try from coast to coast. In Milwaukee a press conference. Newsmen held quoted him:

"I am not committed to it (the Brannan Plan) and the Administration is not com-mitted to it."

Next day in Sioux City he held another news conference, denied he had said "Administration": "I said I was not committed to it, and the Democratic Party wasn't committed to it" to it.

to it." But all over the country headlines like the Denver Post's appeared: "Tru-man Deserting Brannan Farm Plan, Veep Hints on Tour." Elmer A. Benson, national chairman of the Progressive Party, said: "I am certain that the fasmers of the

(Continued on following page)

October 18, 1950

5

(Continued from preceding page) nation are deeply shocked. . . This is a terrible blow at the welfare of the farmers and consumers of America, who need pro-tection new worse than ever from the ravates of wartime profiteering and in-factors."

IS PATTON A PUPPET? To many members of the Natl. Farmers Union, what was even more scandalous than the Brannan Plan repudiation was the Brainan Fian reputation was Harry Truman's apparent capture of their president, James G. Patton. He had been courted. He had gone on a government-sponsored junket of West-ern Europe, sent home warm praise of Marshall Plan results which shocked right-wing CIO and AFL leaders on their tous inspecting workers' conditions their tour inspecting workers' conditions

(GUARDIAN, Aug. 30). The White House door was open to him. He be-came a sponsor of Gen. Lucius Clay's "Freedom Crusada." He was appointed to W. Stuart Symington's Advisory came a sponsor of Gen. Lucius Clay's "Freedom Crusade," He was appointed to W. Stuart Symington's Advisory Committee on Mobilization Policy, an adjunct of the National Security Re-sources Board. When the U.S. inter-vened in the Korean war, Patton quick-ly backed the move. Recently Patton received a letter from Mrs. Reynold Locken, a member of the Rarikan Local of the Farmers Union at Webster, S.D. Among other things she wrote: Many of our leaders are no longer the militant torchbearers they once were. . . . What has become of us? Have we become nere puppets manipulated by the strings of a political party? Are we selling our sould and precious heritage for a dollar-or rather the promise of a dollar? Is any one of us still so naive as to think we can have parity at home while we use our iron heet to further crush oppressed people abroat? Mrs Locken's questions were prompt-abroad? Mrs Locken's questions were prompt-ed by Patton's determined but futile effort to unseat Fred Stover, president of the Iowa Farmers Union, at its con-vention last month, for refusing to go along with the war program and sell-out of the farmers. Stover's organiza-tion was now in trouble. A Patton bloc was now in trouble. A Patton bloc had tried to seize control; an injunction to restrain them tied up the union's funds and files. Money was needed to pay court costs and expenses. A State Farmers Union Defense Committee last week was appealing around the country for contributions to carry on the fight; funds could be sent to Ida Rink, Sec'y, FU Defense Comm., Paton, Ia.

HIGH COST OF RED-BAITING: A rank-and-file movement was beginning to appear in other states. The first move came from Minnesota, where members complained that "a year ago the 'bosses' decided to shove a new president down our throats." Last week a rank-and-file committee in Wisconsin was writing to s: el that the prime and basic mistake Wisconsin Farmers Union leadership coeptance of the disruptive policy of red-baiting. Scores of good, loyal mem-bers, some of many years standing, have been unceremoniously excluded.... We say that the intervention of the National Board in lows is a serious danger signal. We fear that if this becomes a policy, disintegration of our Union will take place on a national scale, instead of in just one state.»

The Wisconsin people documented their repudiation of red-baiting. They pointed out that in 1947, when their state leaders first began denouncing communism, the organization had 16, 000 members; in 1948 membership dropped to 8,000; this year it is under 5.00

There clearly was a sharp fight ahead to keep the National Farmers Union from going the way of the CIO.

World Partisans push PEACE plans for congress in London invited from 132 countries; prepara-tions are being made for at least 2,500. In the U.S. it was announced that a

REGULARLY the influential journal REGULARLY the influential journal wallace's Farmer and Iowa Home-stead conducts a reader poll on current issues. Its latest, on war, found 57% of Iowa farmers questioned still hopeful of peace through negotiation; 15% favored negotiations with the Soviet Union now, 40% thought believe the IIN work out Sponsoring Committee for the World Peace Congress was being set up with offices in Room 409, 135 Liberty St., New York 6, N.Y. Rev. Robert Muir of Roxbury, Mass., is its secretary. negotiations with the Soviet Union now, 42% thought helping the UN work out a peace plan was best. But since spring, when the same poll showed 55% with hope in the UN, those favoring a pre-ventive war had risen from 3 to 12%. The journal commented: Most farm people are worrying. So far, they think there's a chance for peace through negotiation. But they're less hepe-ful than they were six months ago. WORKERS' WELCOME: Sheffield is a great industrial center and the heart of Britain's armament production. Lo-cal trade union leaders hailed the City

ERP HOSPITALITY: Hundreds of millions of Stockholm Peace Pledge signers around the world remained convinced that World War III could be headed off. They were looking confidently to the Second World Peace Congress to be held in Sheffield, England, Nov. 14-19. The British government had re-14-19. The British government had re-fused entry to foreign members of the congress' planning committee; they met instead in Prague, decided to go ahead with plans for the Sheffield meeting on assurances from Premier Attlee that the government would not try to ban it. But barring the planning committee brought vigorous protests. The Deen of Canterbury asked: The Dean of Canterbury asked:

"How much longer must we suffer dicta-tion from American imperialism? She dic-tates our currency, our trade, our arma-ments program. Now size apparently dictates our hospitality, for this is not an English thing to do." Delegates to the congress have been

Chicage

In London, playwright Sean O'Casey had a word to say for peace: "Let Winston Churchill clasp the atom-bomb to his bosom if he wants to and make it his guardian angel—the bomb before me; Los Angeles

PENCE 103

Council's decision, against Tory opposi-tion, to allow the congress to be held in the City Hall. The District Committee of the Amalgamated Engineering Union, representing 20,000 workers, adopted a unanimous resolution calling adopted a unanimous resolution calling for support of the congress. Harry Wil-son, secretary of the Sheffield Amalga-mated Union of Foundrymen, said: "There's no doubt it will have the full backing of the foundrymen. . . . It's a tre-mendous thing the delegates are coming to sheffield and I've no doubt that both the workers on the job and the district com-mittees of the unions will give all the help they can, because this is a very great occasion."

CAMPAIGN CABARET -- 16th C. D. IPP. Great show featuring EARL ROBINSON. Refreshments, Dancing, Fun. Gould Studios, 7213 Beverly Bivd., L. A. Sat., Oct. 28, 8 pm. to ? Contribution $1.

Philadelphia

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN'S DESSERT LUNCHEON with Mrs. Albert Maltz, Millard Lampell, Mrs. Narins & Mrs. Hughes. Sheraton Hotel, 19th & Walnut Sts. Everybody invited. Sat., Oct. 21, 12:30 p.m. $1.75 per plate.

NATIONAL GUARDIAN 7

the bomb behind me; the bomb on right hand, and the bomb on my left h —but we, the people, won't lef it or within striking distance of us. We are busy with life to allow ourselves to be terrupied by death."

UNHEEDED VOICES: Untold sorrow was foreseen by all U.S. peace or ganizations as U.S. forces crossed the 38th Parallel in Korea. Pleas from all of them that the line be respected went unheeded, both by the government and by the press. Even such voices as those of Dr. Thomas Mann, Bishop Walls, sec-retary of the Board of Bishops of the A.M.E. Zion Church and a member of the central committee of the World Council of Churches, and Dean John B. Thompson of the Rockfeller Mem-orial Chapel of the University of Chicago, were ignored in most U.S. news-papers. They spoke for the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives:

or Peaceful Alternatives: We propose a UN order for an immediate armistice in Korea; that the 38th Parallel be respected by all nations concerned as the limit of UN military action; that no undemocratic government like that of the Syngman Rhee regime be installed; that Korea be unified and given the right to determine its own form of government un-der the guarantees of a truly representa-tive UN; and an immediate program of re-construction under UN auspices and direc-tion.... We urge assurances that Korea not become another Greece with political reprisals and concentration camps, but be permitted to work out its own destiny. COLONELS IN SHORT PANTS- While permitted to work out its own destiny. COLONELS IN SHORT PANTS: While peace was the overriding concern of millions, a public school in New York City was going military. An official directive to all teachers demanded that "a military discipline should prevail" in the classrooms; daily inspections "with military precision and with the class at attention" should be held; an-nouncements would be called "orders of the day"; class officers would be captains, lieutenants and sergeants; the Marine Handbook would be the manual for gymnasium work, and "formal drills for gymnasium work, and "formal drills and military exercises" would replace informal games.

Listings in this section are available at 40c a line (five words); minimum charge $2 per tinsertion. Copy deadline Friday before publication. Please send payment with copy. Address: Calendar, National Guardian, 17 Murray St., New York 7, N. Y.

CLASSIFIED

General

PORTABLE SUNLAMP. Ultra Violet & Infra Red. Reg. $14.95. Spec. $11.19. Standard Brand Dist., 148 4th Av. (13th & 14th St.) N. X. C. GR 3-7619.

EARN MONEY IN YOUR SPARE TIME, Wanted—agents to sell Kanco Blades. Write Kanco, 17 Murray St., New York 7.

New York 7. LIFE-LIKE TOYS. Made for Chil-dren; adults can's resist them. Dur-able Pinstic.-Faccinating ANIMALS and PEOPLE with jointed legs. mecks and heads. They pose-more in any direction. The People hold hands -very novel ides. Set. No. 1: HORSE, ELEPHANT, ZEBRA, GHRAFFE. Four animals complete with Animal School House $2 prepaid; $2.35 C.O.D. Set No. 2: CLOWN, GIRL ACBOBAT, MALE ACROBAT, RINGMASTER, MALE ACROBAT, RINGMASTER, RIDER, COWBOY, Two CIRCUS HANDS. Seven People $3 prepaid; $3.35 C.O.D. Mency back guarantee if children and you not thrilled! ACTION. TOYS, 2414 Silverlake Bivd., Los Angeles 39, Calit. YOUR FIRST ROLL OF FILM

YOUR FIRST ROLL OF FILM developed and enlarged in album form for only 20c (8 or 12 expos-ure film only) to introduce you to a better photo service. Hirsch Film Service, Bird, P.O. Box 123, New ROOM & BOARD for cultured eld-erly couple in comfortable country home. Oil, heat, bath, delicious meals, beautiful countryside. Very modest charge. Irma C. Otto, Cen-ter Sandwich, N.H. Tel.: 87 R 2. MIAMI BEACH FURNISHED ROOMS in nice private home. Best location at reasonable rates. Write F. A. Norman, 2123 Meridian Av., Miami Beach, Fla., or tel. 5-7177 upon ar-rival. Save this ad.

New York

MOVING PROBLEM? Any job, any place. Shipping, crating, packing. We're quick and careful. Call us and go places. Thomas Moving & Truck-ing, 322 W. 108th St., N. Y. C. Phone: RI 9-6299.

CABINET MAKING, interior decora-tion, reproductions, frames, original art, arts & crafts. For contemporary tastes. Reasonable prices. Beran-Orban, 22 Astor Pi., NYC. Open Mon.-Sat.; Wed.-Thurs. evenings.

MIMEOGRAPHING, MULTIGRAPH-ING, PHOTO - OFFSET, MAILING SERVICE. Co-op Mimeo Service, 39 Union Sq., N. T. 3. AL 5-5780-1. FOR GOOD INTERIOR PLANNING AND DECORATING, from a problem corner in the living room to an in-dustrial layout—home, office, show-room or store—see EVE D. BEN-NETT, 309 6th Av. WA 4-7782.

WANTED: Couple needs three rooms, unfurnished. Sheepshead Bay or Brighton Beach area. Write to A. Storik, 319 Washington St., Hoboken, N. J., or phone HO 4-6942.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON NOVEMBER 18 7.7 7 7 7 7

PROGRESSIVE PARTY ON THE AIR. Informative, penetrating dis-cussion of the news by Katherine Van Orden. Every Mon., 8:45 p.m. Station WNJR, 1430 on the dial.

Tell the advertiser you saw it in the GUARDIAN.

MASS ELECTION RALLY with Charles P. Howard, John Abt and State candidates. Turners Hall, Broad & Columbia Av. Sat., Oct. 28, 8 p.m. Adm. 25c, tax incl. Every-body out!

THREE BOOKS ABOUT WORKERS

Labor leaders and labor forces

By Elmer Bendiner

"THEY DON'T SUFFER. Why, they can't even speak English," said a coal operators' rep-resentative, speaking of the miners in dictating terms to them in 1898.

It was the language of booming, expanding American capitalism, too powerful to be discreet. It had the government unblushingly in its corner and the labor movement was valiant but feeble.

The attitude, the manner, the phrases were like those used in 1806 when a jury solemnly declared: "We find the defendants guilty of a combination to raise wages.'

100 YEARS AFTER: The charge of criminality and radicalism stuck to the labor movement on into the 20th century—until the Wagner Act made unions fully legal. Yet the arrogance of a booming U.S. Industry, unequaled as it took on the nation in the last century, has not less-ened as it takes on the world in this one. Rather, it has stiffened with the years. In 1842 the closed shop was formally legalized in a decision by the Supreme Judicial Courf of Massachusetts.

A century later, in 1947, it was made illegal under the Tatt-Hartley Act. How labor fought the employers, with the reformer's zeal and utopian cooperatives; with panaceas and political lobbies; with a class ideology but no unionism; with unionism and no ideology; with bloodshed, bargaining, hero-ism and betrayals is told in Charles A. Madi-son's American Labor Leaders.

FORCES MAKE MEN: The book carries the subtitle: "Personalities and Forces in the La-bor Movement." This is no collection of anec-dotes. The fire of John L. Lewis and Bill Hay-wood, the colorful corruption of Bill Hutcheson of the Carpenters are chronicled. But the book's emphasis quite properly is on the forces rather than the personalities of these men among others: others:

others: • WILLIAM SYLVIS, the iron molder and early Marxist who, after the civil war, brought all American labor together for the first time. • SAMUEL GOMPERS, who in his early years ad-mitted that he was stirred by the Communist Mani-festo and found the talk of militant socialists "a hope-filed alluring light in the gray misery of the New York sky." In later years he stood with big business even in opposition to anti-trust legislation, fought industrial unionism, turned the labor movement away from socialism and made of it a business. • WILLIAM GREEN, who followed Gompers' busi-ness unionism.

ness unionism. • JOHN L. LEWIS, the brilliant, ruthless giant of the labor movement, nevertheless imprisoned in the labor movement, nevertheless imprisoned in Gompers' conservatism, • BILL HAYWOOD, the latter-day labor crusader who died a Communist, • SIDNEY HILLMAN, the statesman of a labor movement that blossomed under the New Deal, the sole period when the U.S. government scemed even mildly sympathetic to labor. • WALTER REUTHER, the relentlessly ambitious, man playing on a nation's hysteria.

• HARRY BRIDGES, the principled leader, who has won the confidence of the longshoremen "to an even greater extent" than Lewis has won over the miners. TOO KIND? Madison's tone is so moderate, even gentle, that some readers will find fault.

Of Green, his sharpest comment concerns "the essential unoriginality of his mind." Consider-ing his subject, his comments even on Hutche-son are mild: "He has the outlook and prac-tices the opportunism of the aggressive busi-nessman." Madison lets Philip Murray off by describing his "greatness" as "somewhat cir-cumscribed by his conventional orientation." Many more readers I suspect will find Madi-

Many more readers, I suspect, will find Madi-son's estimates judicial and balanced. Beyond that they will find in his book the outlines of American labor history—an exciting, hopeful story for progressives who grow gloomy these days at the spectacle of the CIO.

AMERICAN LABOR LEADERS, by Charles Madison. Harper & Bros., New York, $4.

The oil workers

Labor history on a smaller canvas and of a different sort is the History of the Oil Workers International Union, by Harvey O'Connor. O'Connor is a veteran labor reporter who worked on the People's Press and later for Federated Press. His style is fast, down to earth, superbly readable. He has no detach-ment about his story. It is the tale of a union and each of its locals, proudly published by and each of its locals, proudly published by the union. It does not touch on the OWIU's position in It does not touch on the counted in Murray's It does not touch on the OWIU's position in CIO, where the union is counted in Murray's corner. It does not speak of Pres. O. A. Knight's service on the trial boards that expelled the left wing. The officers are rarely mentioned. The author concentrates on the rank and file, their fight for wages and conditions and against the discrimination suffered by Negro oil workers. workers.

He cites the testimony of a representative of Local 229 who told a Labor Board hearing: "No matter what they do it's common labor if a colored man does it." "Do Negroes do better work than whites?" he was

Denver 2, Colo.

Reference mine

A labor book of still another kind is New York University's Third Annual Conference on Labor. It is a compendium of statements by governmental authorities and semi-official spokesmen. It is a mine of reference material in a period when so much of official labor is concerned with the intricacies of preparing cost-of-living charts rather than with picket lines and demonstrations. lines and demonstrations.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY'S THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON LABOR. Matthew Bender, Inc., 149 Broadway, $7.50.

Not better, just more of it.'

HISTORY OF THE OIL WORKERS, by Harvey O'Connor, published by the Oil Workers In-ternational Union (CIO) 1840 California St.,

John T. McMANUS for Governor Dr. Clementina J. PAOLONE Jor Lt. Governor

DUGAN'S HISTORY LESSON

Buddhist discovers America By James Dugan

WHILE our rulers are resisting the inevitable recognition while our rulers are resisting the inevitable recognition of China, it can be pointed out that China recognized us in 502 A.D., somewhat before the arrival here of Secy. Acheson's forebears. In that year a Buddhist missionary named Hui Shen returned from a long walk—20,000 B, or 6,500 miles—to his superiors in King-chow, a dynastic capital on the Yangtse. He checked in with a report of the latest doings in the Buddhist province of "Fusang," which was the name they had for North America in the regrettable posterity of Amerigi Vespucct. "Fusang," said the Buddhist circuit rider was an in-posterity of Amerigi Vespucct. "Fusang," said the Buddhist circuit rider, was an in-teresting country which could be reached by walking to the extremity of Asia, boating across the (Bering) strait, and pounding the feet again through a boggy country (Alaska), down through a coastal enscarpment (the Pacific Northwest and California) to an agreeable hot land (Mexico). There Hui Shen had found a people who had an excellent tree, the "fusang" (the modern Mexican maguey), from which they ate green shoots, brewed alcohol, spun its fibres into cloth and made paper of it. The missionary brought back with him maguey cloth and a twelve-inch Aztec mirror. Hui Shen had found the Fusang people recentive to Hui Shen had found the Fusang people receptive to Buddhism, and was able to report that many souls could be saved by a big missionary effort. He apologized for not walking to the eastern limits of Fusang, which the natives told him was rather wide: 10,000 H (or 3,250 miles), ending on a wide sea (the Atlantic). The wise Buddhist cardinals thanked Hui Shen and told him to forget it thanked Hui Shen and told him to forget it.

MORAL: Hope springs eternal: 1,148 years later some folks still think "Fusang" can be converted to Christianity.

2

