That muck-rake outburst is one of the first symptoms of the "menace of Socialism." The politicians read the handwriting on the wall and are getting hysterical. We certainly ought to be satisfied.

The Standard Oil crowd will ap-laud certain passages in Roose-relt's muck-rake speech. That the seople want the "nuck-raking" to copie want the "ninck-raking" to belinue is shown by the tremend-us sales of the to-cent magazives, but Rousevelt's speech leaves it a use-up as to whether he was try-ing hardest to please the Rocke-eller, Aldrich, McCurdy, Depew round or to dodge the executions of the victims of that thievish class.

The Social-Democratic movement of America is not only developing a literature but the excellence of that literature is being a sitested to by the fact that some of the universities are taking the books for text-books. This has just happened to the recently issued "Bitter Cry of the Children," which has been adopted by Columbia University. The book is by John Spargo, for years a leading worker in the England and the Umted States, and has received strong press notices from all sides.

Such a picture! Roosevelt try-|crats elected the mayor, recorder and a councilman. And so on.

Milwaukee's New Council Goes In.

All is buzz and hum. The gatter All is buzz and hum. The galleries are packed with humanity and below on the council floor chairs have been placed in every available space. There is the heavy odor of hot house plants, which are there in lavish profusion, and everything is festive and expectant. Still chairs are being carried in, followed by richly uressed women who are to occupy them through the favor of politicians or officials knowing the ropes.

It is the chamber of the city council of Milwankee we are gazing down upon and the occasion is the assembling of the newly elected aldermen who are to rule Milwankee's legislative destiny for the coming two years and also the inaugural of the new mayor.

Is Muck To Run Amuck?

By Victor L. Berger.

PRESIDENT Theodore Roosevelt has ground his big teeth, has reached for the "big stick," and has told the world that he was going to annihilate the "Man with the Muck Rake." What is muck? It is wet and decayed vegetable substance mixed with animal refuse. In short, it is wet manure-a useful and very necessary element of agriculture. And the man with the muck rake is a very useful man. But of course the president did not mean agricultural muck nor the argriculturalist. He meant the magazine writers and newspaper men, who like David Graham Phillips chastise the United States Sen-ate; like Lincoln Steffens show graft everywhere; like Arthur Bris-

And the graft, the thievery and misery of our capitalist systems is the muck of which he was speaking.

bane try to instill the philosophy of Socialism and the idea of a higher civilization into the untutored minds of the masses. These

The parable itself is not a new one. The "man with the muck rake" in John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" is the man who is so busy with his daily task of making a living for himself and his family -with the honest and absolutely necessary work of "raking muck"—that he does not see " the angel holding a crown over his head." And well he might neglect to see it. After all, this crown was at best a promissory note for the future: while by raking the muck, he was do-ing something necessary and useful, and he and his family surely had their reward in this life. They saw their grain grow. They got their

Or does Roosevelt mean to say that we are to neglect the "muck" in this world? That we are to wait patiently for the "angel with the golden crown" to right things in the next world? This is usually the fervent wish of all kings and rulers.

So much is sure: that Theodore Roosevelt seems to think that bese writers are raking "muck." The logical conclusion is then, that United States Senate is muck. That the conditions in Philadelphia were muck. That the beef trust is muck. That the Standard Oil Co. is muck. That Belmont, Ryan, Murphy & Co. in New York are muck written up in the magazines, and still more that have not been written up, are muck. That a good many of the other extortions and grafts, that have be

We think so too, And there we agree with him. Only we draw the logical conclusion to the end. We can see plainly that the whole capitalist system is "running a-muck."

And knowing furthermore that the present capitalist system is merely a forerunner—so much fertilizer (Kultur-Duenger) — for a higher civilization, we consider the forthcoming of the muck a natural development. The "muck" shows the decomposition of the system the young green growth of a new civilization is sprouting right un

And the men raking up this muck—the men with the muck rakes—are doing this work for the benefit of the people. They are doing work that will live long after them. These men deserve a great deal of credit and praise—not scorn and contempt.

It is surely not pleasant work—raking muck.

If the capitalist system cannot stand this exposure, if the result of their work helps nobody but the Socialists, as is unanimously claimed by the supporters of the capitalist system, that is not the fault of the men at work. That is then so much the worse for capitalism and so much the better for Socialism.

If civilization and culture and freedom are to survive, this work must be done.

Do you remember the origin of the "Order of the Garter," thighest distinction in England?

She—the lady—was the king's mistress. Everybody knew the Dancing recklessly she lost her garters in the ball room. The king loved her and himself tried to fix them on for her. Some of the contiers made funny remarks. That was not to be allowed. While ever body knew that the lady had become a high-class prostitute, no or was to say so. "Honi soit qui mal y pense," said the king. "We to him who evil thinks." But those who acquiesce will get wealth bonor and distinction.

New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, etc. She is actually getting distribute. Theodore does not deny it. But with all her me he loves her still. Theodore is going to fix these garters—it cially." Capitalism is all right. "Hou soit qui mal y pense." It say a word about it—you men with the muck rake. The king is time angrey.

Theodore ought also to found an order—the Order of the Mr. Like King Edward he ought to honor the very object despised-make a rake the emblem. And Ogden Armour, Elihu Root, R. McCurdy should receive the blue ribbon and the heredititle of Grand Rakes.

But even the big expitalists—the men whom he is trying to fend and save—are not satisfied with him. In vain does he tell a that he means "no harm" by talking against the trusts. That cap ism is his only true love. That he only flirts with the "reforme order to make capitalism stronger. It is all in vain. Lady Capi will stand for no flirting with "reform"—not even as a jolanot "respectable."

Mr. Perry Belmont, in a letter to John A. Mason, president the Bronx Press Club, expresses his disgust at the manner in w "President Roosevelt 'sicked' the magazine writers on to the S to aid him in his fight with that body" in regard to the rather bill. Belmont thinks that when the president saw that the people "people" meaning the capitalist class of course—were turning again the writers because they thought the exposure had gone too far, changed front completely, and appeared as a defender of the upbranch of Congress, and this resulted in the "muck rake" speech. to aid him in his fight with that body" in regard to the railre

Then Mr. Belmont says: "That reference (to the muck urally recalls another character in 'Pilgrim's Progress,' Mr. Faci both-ways, an attitude to be avoided by all entrusted with public of whether of minor responsibility or the most exalted in the gift of

Now, that is the way that Roosevelt's efforts in behalf of capi ism are appreciated by our plutocrats. It is unnecessary to say Roosevelt no more "sicked" the magazine writers on to the than Belmont did. But is it all very instructive. It shows that world is again dividing into two camps—and the other camp does want "uncertain leaders" and camp followers any more than we want them. And that is why they are also talking about kicking Hearst of the Democratic party.

But to our Socialist comrades all over the country. I will say t Of course, economic conditions are the greatest makers of cialists. And the most effective propaganda work for Socialism to is not done by the man within the party. It is done by a small of brilliant and fearless writers, who boldly expose the ills and of the present system, even if they do not directly name a real it is done by the 'man with the muck rake,' While some fanation. our party are trusting to "holy words" and magic phrases to be about the Co-operative Commonwealth, these intellectual pior go right out into the barren ground of our present public life, open the ground, "rake up the muck" to fertilize it, and preparation for the seed of Socialism.

Therefore, I say, all hail to the man with the "muck rake hail to Arthur Brisbane, David Graham Phillips, Upton Sh Lincoln Steffens, Charles Edward Russell, and the men in this work. They are doing the greatest work that has been done in this country since the time of the Abolition agitation. Victor L. Berger

ENETS OF SOCIAL-DEMOCRACY

The Principles of International Collectivism as set forth in the National Platform, adopted at Chicago, May 8, 1904.

We the Socialist party, in con-vention assembled, make our ap-peal to the American people as the defender and preserver of the idea of liberty and self-government, in which the nation was born; as the only political movement standing for the program and principles by which the liberty of the individual may become a fact; as the only political organization that is democratic, and that has for its purpose the democratization of the w society.

To this idea of liberty the Republican and Democratic parties are alike false. They alike struggle for power to maintain and profi by an industrial system which can be preserved only by the complete overthrow of such liberties as we already have, and by the still fur-ther enslavement and degradation Our American institutions came into the world in the name of freedom. They have been seized upon by the capitalist class as the means of rooting out the idea of freedom from among the people. Our state and national legislatures have become the mere agents of great prop-ertied interests. These interests control the appointments and de-cisions of the judges and our rourts. They have come into what practically a private ownership of all the functions and forces of government. They are using these to betray and conquer foreign and weaker people, in order to establish new markets for the surplus goods which the people make, but are too poor to buy. They are gradually so invading and restricting the right of suffrage as to take unawares for right of the worker to a vote or voice in public affairs. By enact-

I have served upon several arbitration commissions where duty toward society necessarily inorder to avoid a strike; but the nonunion man is never known to contribute a cent, and yet he gets all the benefits secured. The union man well knows that unless be can maintain his union he will soon see reduction in wages and the old conditions soon return. Dead, dead for ever? . . . No, they live in humanity; they have served to build the great Babel that rises to ward the sky, each stone of which ward the sky, each stone of which is a nation.

Social-Democracy.

Social-Democracy is a conscious endeavor to substitute organized coperation for existence in place of the present anarchial competition for existence, or the system of social organization calculated to bring this about. This definition, though it gives, perhaps, adequate expression to the active and practicontrol the movement and develop-ment of their own society in the near future. Consequently Socialdom, and wagedom, was inevitable, so the next step from capitalism to Socialism is also inevitable.

The object which Social-Demorats have in view is that this, the crats have in view is that this, the final transformation, should be made consciously by an organized educated, and intelligent people, instead of unconsciously, and therefore tempestuously, by groups of discontented, embittered, and ignorant workers. Agitation against the injustice of the present system of production, therefore, is only valuable so far as it educates men and women to appreciate the tendency uable so far as it educates men and women to appreciate the tendency of the time, and leads them to organize for the attriument of the definite end which the evolution of economic forms has made ready. Whether the great change will be brought peaceably or forcibly has no bearing upon Socialism in itself, but depends upon the stage of developement which has been reached in each civilized country. reached in each civilized country, and the attitude which the domin-ant class may adopt in relation to the demands which the economic and class may adopt in relation to the demands which the economic situation impels the producing class to make.

With the establishment of national and eventually of international Socialism, mankind resumes the definite control over the means and instruments of production, and masters them henceforward for all time instead of being mastered by them. By such cooperative industry, whose power over nature is increased by each fresh invention and discovery, a carapace of repression is lifted from the faculties of each individual, and wealth being made as plentiful as water by light, wholesovic labo., all freely contribute to merease their own happiness as well as that of their fellows. Finnan nature assumes a new and higher character in a society in which the surroundings are such that life is not, as to-day, a constant struggle.

I rejoice at every effort working-men make to organize. I stand in the presence of a momentous power. If I have 100,00 men represented before me, who are in-earnest, who get hold of the great question of labor and having hold of it, grapple with it, rip it open, invest it with light, gathering the facts, piercing the brains about them, and crowding those brains with facts, then I know, sure as fate, though I may not live to see it, that they will certainly conquer this nation in twenty years. That is your power, gentlemen. If you do your duty, and by that I mean standing together and being true to each other, you will decide all elections.

You ask me to speak to you on the relations of capital and labor. I am a capitalist. Why do I come here? Because I am gravely dissatisfied with the civilization around me. All over the world over onehalf of christendom starves, either bodily or mentally. Even in this country over one-half of the people have never enjoyed the resources of this life. I am ashamed of the civilization that makes 5,000 needy men dependent on one. The sys-force. FOR OUR NEW READERS:

THIS COUNTRY is made up of working people, both industrial and agricultural, but is ruled by the expitalist class, which is numerically small. Being is control of the government, it runs that government in the interests of its class and against the interests of the working class, which is the people. We Socialists believe that the country should be ruled by the people in the interests of the people. That is why we established a government in the first place. We want the people to own it so that the political power can be used to begin the march to the co-operative system, called Nocial-Democracy. All the means of existence are now sweed by capitalists, and yet the capitalist class makes up only are now owned by capitalists, and yet the capitalist class makes up only about 12 per cent of the population, and a mere ONE PER CENT of it OWNS OVER HALF THE WEALTH OF THE NATION! The neans of existence should be owned by the collectivity in order that the benefits should go to ALL instead of to a FEW.

Under the capitalist system $1.) was majority of mankind must sell themrelyes to the capitalistic owners of the means of production and distribution in order to live and to live miserably at that.

It ought to own all the trusts so that all may enjoy the benefits. It ought to own all the trusts so that all may enjoy the benefits. It ought to own all the means of production as soon as such industries have become sufficiently concentrated.

To bring this about the people—the workers—must get control of the political power. The Social-Democratic party (known as the Social-Democratic party (known as the Social-Democratic party) is organized to bring this about—this and the abolition of capitalism. It insists that the industrious class shall be the wealthy class, and the ide class the poor class—but it will, in fact, shellsh the poor class altogether. The Socialbut it will, in fact, abolish the poor class altogether. The Social-Democratic movement is international, but we expect it to achieve success in the United States first, because the capitalist system, which we mean to approach is hest developed here. To show you that your interests lie with us we print the following:

Program of International Social-Democracy:

- Collective sweezship of all industries in the hands of Trusts and Combines, and of all public utilities.
- Democratic management of such collective industries and utilities. Reduction of the hours of labor and progressively increased Remu-

While the toilers in free America are hoping that they may possibly be able to get the eight-hour day, the toilers in the monarchical colony of Australia, are agitating for a six hour day! Which shows how much better for the workingman it is to live under a republic than a colonial portion of a great empire!

Some are mighty selfish. If you will take the trouble to interview the bankers who have a five-hour work-day, and the manufacturers who have a three-hour work-day during the summer resort season, and the ultra-capitalists who have no work-day at all and spend their time in travel and coupon clipping, you will find them all op-posed stubbornly to an eight-hour day for the wage-working class. Mighty selfish, eh? But then, if they thought it would not interfere with their short hour rights probably they would have no great ob-

It's funny when you think of it that we build jails and then fill them with the least dangerous class in the community. It is not real criminals we deal with in our police courts, but men who have merely broken some police regulation. The real rascals in modern society escape. They are all about us. A dispatch from Oregon says that indictments against twelve of these sort of people who are so "prominent" that their names are withheld, have just been returned on a charge of vast land frauds.

As they are all men of "prominence" and "wealth" it is a certainty that they will never get inside the prisons. They have the money to fight themselves clear of the law!

The I. W. W. movement is "on adventurer. 'See,' they cry, 'noth-the loog,' we learn, and the leaders, as they see their hopes dashed, are becoming more bitter. They are an incongruous lot, some of whom while still claiming to be Socialists dustrially and prepare for the genare now ready to tell the wage- eral strike. Hunt vs. Ashplant,

To the Editor:—I agree that the test shall be: Is it true? This appeals, not to Marx, or others, but to each man's common sense, I am sorry A. did not try to support his assertions that value depends upon the relative volumes of Herman Bergner, commodities, not upon the supply and demand for each commodity I find that the idea may be old, for it corresponds with the notion that all the money is equivalent to all commodities. This is so fanciful Henry George's Political Economy, not for authority, but for a sensible statement. True political economy does not advocate any particular system, but should be merely the arithmetic of production and distribution:

"What the idea of value really springs from is not the relation of each thing having value, to all things having value, but the rela-tion of each thing having value to something which is the source and natural measure of all value, viz: Human exertion. I would not discourage Mr. Ash-plant in his explorations. He may find something new. In the Bookkeeper he labored long on the quesfrom?" It seems simple to me. If pay the whole price of an article, pay cost, interest, handling, adtherefore the profit comes from me.

Hope to read Marx soon

Trade unionism is not a "labor trust." A trust excludes the many trust." A trust excludes the man for the benefit of the few. Trade unionism opens wide its door to every man in the craft, frequently reducing or abrogating the initia-tion fee in order to make it easier for the candidate. A trust is a close corporation; a trades union diligently seeks new members.

The members of the Social-Democratic party of the county of Milwankee are urgently requested to attend their various branch meetings regularly. It is very important, comrades, that you be present at each meeting of your local branch. New business from various sources will come before each meeting from now on. Not only'is comrades are asked to consider the matter as quickly as possible and let us hear of the decision. The plans for the work depend very largely upon what the comrades do in this upon what the comrades do in this matter.

The comrades in Iowa found some time ago that 5 cents dues per member was not sufficient to carry on their work and raised it to 10 cents. They say it works well, that they have lost no members and have on their work and raised it to 10 cents. They say it works well, that they have lost no members and have thus doubled their resources. Minnesota has followed suit and done the same.

The courages to the courages to the courages and the funds are factor in this country that it takes more funds and requires more help now than at any time in the past. Therefore, it is up to the party work along.

Therefore, it is up to the party work along.

Therefore it is up to the party work along. It is now up to the comrades to decide. We must have an organizing fund. Shall we each vote to add five cents per month to our dues and thus start the ball rolling? So far as we know the comrades are dues and thus start the ball rolling. So far as we know the comrades are in favor of the proposition. Shall their minds that it shall be done. Not only is this necessary, but when you get a new member, get him writes that the local at Pacific, sufficiently interested in our party which is made up entirely of farm- work so that we will not lose him ers, gave a box social recently and in the future. In other words cleared $13.65. This they intend to use, so he says, to get speakers, or in any other way for the benefit in the work of Socialism, after he has joined the organization.

It is also necessary that after they have joined the organization, to attend the meetings regularly.

The West Side Woman's Club has decided to call their meetings at 2:00 P. M. hereafter, instead of

Wisconsin Federation Board. The State Executive Board met

in regular session April 8. In the nce of the State Secretary, E. T. Melms acted as secretary pro-tem. A bill of $1.50 was allowed to F. Brockhausen for expenses to Racine. It was voted to pay Jacob Hunger's bill for printing from the receipts due the board from proceeds of the Social Democratic fair. It was also decided to send out a referendum to the party membership on an amendment to the constitution to raise the state dues from five to ten cents a month. It was voted to engage two additional state organizers subject to the result of this referendum. A charter was granted to Waupaca. The meeting then adjourned to the following Sunday.

A special meeting of the board was held April 15. It was voted that C. D. Thompson be requested to decline the nomination to the state secretaryship of Minnesota and that he be placed in charge of a department of organization work of Wisconsin, subject to the direction of the State Executive Board It was also voted to request the County Central Committee to retain E. T. Melms in the position of City Organizer which he now occupies. It was voted to engage W. R. Gaylord as second state organizer, if the referendum in regard to raising state dues is carried, and V. L. Berger and C. D. Thompson were appointed a committee to look up a third organizer. C. D. Thompson was appointed a committee of one to draft a circular in regard to the referendum on preme means to realize this ideal;

As the old saying goes, to try to explain a scientific propo-sition to children or fools is a waste of time.

> The day after election the daily papers gave as one of the reason for the result in the Tenth Ward the "fact" that there was division among Socialists of that ward. Our Tenth Ward Comrades were puzzled, and tried to think of what could have given rise to such an idea. Now it has come out. A Socialist-hater named Gerhardt, who was elected alderman, gave it out to the papers that the party in the ward was split and that he had a former secretary of the Social-Democratic city central committee actually serving as one of his ward heelers, a fellow named F. Grund-

This is interesting. Grund-mann was never an officer of the 3 Nights Only—One Mather Commencing

At this time he got into bad odor by acabbing as a painter and wanted the branch to approve of his doings. When it did not do this and also faile, to name him as one of the ward candidates in the election two years ago, he suddenly lost all interest in Socialism and working-class principle, and exhibited himself in his true colors by joining the Republican Debating Club of the ward. The branch was cleaner by his absence, and he is now where he really belongs.

While it is not at all settled that this will be done the mere announcement tends to make parents apprehensive, for there is a suspicion in the muldic there is a suspicion in the public mind that in spite of the endless change in school books in the past, requiring parents to buy more books than they should have ever had to, the old books of long ago would average up pretty well with the new ones now in use.

Director Arnold, although not on the text book committee, says that it is the policy of the board as far as possible to save parents from expense where a new book is introduced and that old books would be continued in use by pupils finishing a grade and the new books required where books had to be purchased anyway. In the matter of readers, he says that supplementary readers will probably be provided by the board, which would be a step toward free school books. Director Arnold, although not on
